

Finger Lakes Glen Thunder Corn Whiskey

45%

Crisps the nose hairs a bit, but it's pure corn, even a bit of cornbread.

Tip a sip in, and it's nothing but more green corn, sweet, fresh — hot, for sure, but not overwhelming — and pretty tasty for what it is. With white whiskey, we're walking the fine line between flavor and raw wound at all times, and this one finds the line.
