

Hudson New York Corn Whiskey

46%

Nose is sweet corn, with some mintiness to it, and some herbal notes; hot, but not off-putting.

Tastes are not as sweet as expected. A bit flat, though the sweet corn does come through toward the end. Again, though, this one is quite hot, which is not surprising; the Hudson Baby Bourbons — which this is the foundation for — have struck me as hot also. Price is per 375 ml.
