

Duncan Taylor (distilled at Bunnahabhain) Rare
Auld Range 1987
vintage 24 year old 55.7%

Full gold in color, this Bunna initially has the lifted Moscatel aroma that's reminiscent of a fine Darjeeling leaf tea, then comes melting milk chocolate and touches of sweet cinnamon toast. The palate continues in this sweet vein, but has the distillery's characteristic thickness in the mid-palate, as well as plenty of its signature fresh ginger note. With water, there are some baked fruits and a hint of flowers. Altogether delicious and subtly complex.
