

Duncan Taylor (distilled at Auchentoshan) 13 year old 1998

46%

Another recent addition to Aberdeenshire bottler Duncan Taylor's Dimensions range, launched late last year. The nose is very fruity, with sliced peaches and apricots, plus a porridge-like background note. Relatively full bodied and malty, with intense fruit notes, then dark spices appear. The finish is medium in length, spicy with aniseed balls, then a lingering creaminess at the very end. £42

—Vol. 21, #2

