

Dad's Hat Pennsylvania
White Rye

50%

There's the sweet reek of new make: barely ripe apricot and peach, green grain, a hint of spice.

The spirit is surprisingly dry, with shots of grain, pepper, and some clean alcohol notes on the top, but a well-mannered 100 proof indeed, and easy to hold on the tongue.

There's a dry twist of anise on the finish. An interesting — and promising — white whiskey.

(Pennsylvania only.)
