

Bushmills Rum Cask

#7122

53.7%

An interesting alternative to a traditional Irish whiskey (kind of reminds me of the rum-casked Springbanks and the Glenfiddich Havana Reserve). Flavors of toffee, light molasses and caramelized sugar throughout, with a hint of lime and spice. Chewy in texture, too. There's a nice interplay between the sweet rum notes and the dry oak spices, with the oak emerging the victor on the finish.
