

Glenglassaugh 37 year old 56%

A first-fill sherry cask bottling (one cask, exclusive to North America).

Some of the old Glenglassaugh whiskies can be very delicious, and this is one of them. It's very clean, lush, and fruity (bramble, citrus, golden raisin), with a kiss of honey, toffee, and soft spice.

Elegantly sherried; it's never cloying. A very nice whisky from a quality cask that tastes more like 21 or 25 years old than 37. (I mean this in a good way.)
