

Blue Hanger 6th Release Berry Bros. &
Rudd
45.6%

If you want proof that blended malts can be world class, you'll find it in any bottle of Blue Hanger.

Lovingly created by Berry Bros. whisky maker Doug McIvor, every release has been exceptional.

Even by the series' own high standards, this sixth release surpasses itself. The nose is fresh, clean, and citrusy, with wafts of sherry. But there are smoky hints, too. And it's that peaty, earthy note on the palate that gives this release a new dimension, enriching the fruity Speyside sweetness at the whisky's core.

The age and quality of the malt asserts itself throughout. This really is stunning stuff. £68
