

Douglas Laing
Provenance (distilled at Blair Athol) 12 year old
46%

This 12 year old example of Diageo's Perthshire single malt has been matured in a sherry butt and features milk chocolate, malt, and digestive biscuits on the nose; becoming fruitier, notably with lemon curd. The palate is rich, sweet, and spicy, with barley, honey, and white grapes. Vanilla and spicy orange marmalade in the medium-length finish. £40

—Vol. 21, #4

