

Ardbeg 1974 Vintage
(Cask #3145)

49.9%

Cask #3145 is the lighter in color, and the sweet notes that balance the smoke and seaweed are not as deeply caramelized as Cask #3542. I'm tasting hints of shortbread and caramel, which show through the peat smoke, tobacco, toasted nuts, firm spice notes (cinnamon, clove, and mint), and lingering brine. Very complex.

Price listed includes the entire Double Barrel 1974 Vintage set.
