

Glen Moray Peated
Spirit Batch #1 Cask
141

60.6%

Another Glen Moray, this time in a substantially different guise than normal. Yes, this is fresh, sweet, and malty — to be precise, draff-like — but there's smoke as well, and a fairly decent belt of it.

Young it may be — amazingly it's less than 2 years old — but the palate, especially with water, is cleansing and with vanilla, good phenols, and orris-like dryness.

Very intriguing. £18 (200 ml)
