

Abraham Bowman Port Finished Bourbon

50%

One of the debut whiskeys at WhiskyFest New York 2012, this was finished in a barrel that held Virginia-made port...after it was used to age Bowman whiskey, a boomerang finish. The nose gives baking chocolate, tropical flowers, and yes, some of that port.

Peppery and port-edged on the tongue, solid fire from the 100 proof, fat corn and fruit in the middle of the palate. Busy, but purposeful. There's a lot here and it's all working together.
