

Scott's Selection
(distilled at Auchentoshan) 21 year
old 1983 vintage
52.4%

Surprisingly thick and oily in texture for a Lowlander. There's plenty of marshmallow, vanilla cream, and ripe barley, with interspersed cut grass, lemon, and mustard seed. Drying oak spice notes on the finish. Not as polished or refined as the distillery bottling of the same age, but it still has many redeeming qualities.

—Vol. 14, #4

