

Jura Turas-Mara

42%

Exclusive to the Travel Retail arena, Jura Turas-Mara takes its name from the Gaelic for "long journey." It has been matured in an array of casks sourced from America, Spain, France, and Portugal. Initially, green apples on the nose, then sweet fruit notes—jelly babies—plus coconut and fudge. A little linseed in the background. Vanilla, peaches, mango, and lively spices on the palate. The finish dries, with aniseed balls, becoming slightly powdery. €50
