

Mackmyra Special No. 10

46.1%

It's well possible that this will be the last of the Special range, and if so, then it is both a bit of a whisper of an ending, and a highly pleasant one. This is as easygoing and gentle as Mackmyra ever gets. Very much a sweet and savory delight, this is a soft dessert whisky with banana and cream in evidence. That's before someone pours the salt pot over it. Even then the caramel and fruit battle back. Highly enjoyable.
