

Glenrothes Minister's Reserve

43%

The oldest of a new three-strong range from Glenrothes called the Manse Brae series; the youngest component here is 21 years old.

Serious and lightly meaty, the savory characters come at you, mixing gun smoke with cypress, sandalwood, dark chocolate, and dunnage warehouse. The headiness of moist forest floor continues on the tongue along with a burst of honeyed peach.

Moving in many directions simultaneously...and slowly. Keep this neat. Classic Rothes. (Travel Retail exclusive.) €140
