

Cadenhead's (distilled at Glen Grant) 15 year old

55.8%

As this is slightly closed when neat, you have to search for Glen Grant's classic apple notes behind a tense nose which, even with water, remains inward-looking.
Thankfully, this changes on the tongue with pure, very linear (typical of GG) flavors of cool mint, cucumber, basil, and yes, apple.
Easy-going from a relaxed cask, but with more substance than you'd expect.
