

Cadenhead's 11 year old (distilled at Bowmore)

57.5%

Light and very creamy, with very subtle smoke in the background, this is like eating a white chocolate ice cream while walking toward a distant beach barbecue. The palate is gentle and sweet with good, refreshing saline balance. Water brings out mint. It's just a little too tight and disconnected on the tongue.

—Vol. 22, #4

