

Canadian Club Black Label 8 year old

40%

In the 1980s, when white spirits elbowed whisky aside in the marketplace, unneeded barrels of Canadian Club continued aging.
Japanese whisky lovers delighted by the resulting flavor boost demanded a new Japan-only CC.
Sweet and hot, the classic pruneey, figgy fruitiness of Canadian Club interweaves with new cedar fence posts. Vaguely pulling tannins lend a bitter edge that first amplifies blistering hot pepper, then muffles it into the soothing, glowing warmth of bubbly ginger ale.
