

Spicebox Pumpkin Spiced Whisky

35%

Early trial batches of this whisky, flavored by cold infusion, tasted like sweet, roasted squash.

However, the final version that we have here is as inviting as the nutmeg-laced pumpkin pie it so resembles. Sweet vanilla and salt water taffy fill the air, with rummy Christmas eggnog taking up the rear. Unusual in that it's sweet but not syrupy. Hot pepper lingers, as do sweet tingling spices, but the whisky notes just barely show their presence. (Canada only) C$22
