

Master of Malt
Darkness! Benrinnes 15
year old Oloroso Cask
Finish

52.9%

What you look for in a finished whisky is for some of the distillery's character to be apparent, but also enhanced. Benrinnes is a big, meaty dram, which suits sherry and its feral aspect is there. Think of roast beef with damson jam, date, and blackberry. The palate is thick with licorice sweetness and a bitter edge. It has power, and while you can see the join between original spirit and finish, it's a pretty happy match. £60/500 ml

—Vol. 23, #3

