

Overeem Port Cask
Matured #26

43%

A soft wadding of port gently prods the senses, producing a nose like a tincture from the hedgerows: redcurrant, raspberry, hawthorn, elderberry, and fresh, grassy notes with an accompaniment of waxed thornproof jackets, star anise, cardamom, and muted cloves.

After maturation in 100-liter French oak quarter casks, the mouthfeel is thinner than expected. It's like sinking your teeth into a slice of watermelon. There's raspberry, Kola Kubes, and a touch of bitterness before a sticky finish. £140
