

Bruichladdich Infinity

55.5%

Aged in a sherry cask, and the sherry is clean and bright. I'm also picking up a good dose of warming peat smoke, along with molasses, and a gentle maltiness throughout. A peppering of subtle brine and a hint of seaweed peak through occasionally, reminding one of its Islay roots.

—Vol. 15, #3

