

The Classic Cask Kentucky Straight Rye Whiskey

21 year old, 45%

Chewy toffee and nougat, with some dusty corn notes along with minty rye and cinnamon. The whiskey's fruit is subtle and subdued, finishing boldly dry with oaky vanilla and leather. Not as bright and intensely spicy as the Sazerac Rye 18 year old on the market, and it's the antithesis of the younger Sazerac Rye 6 year old also reviewed in this Buyer's Guide. An enjoyable, mature rye whiskey.
