

Douglas Laing Provenance (distilled at Longmorn) 11 year old 46%

Pale straw. Light but intense, with some pollen, dusty fruits, baked apple. Water brings out an aroma like a fruit orchard in springtime.

Performs much better in the mouth, and although hot, shows good distillery character with some cooked peach, quince jam, and yellow plums. A decent lunchtime dram. £50

—Vol. 24, #2

