

Douglas Laing Old Particular (distilled at Glenburgie) 7 year old
46%

Pale straw. An upfront and quite aromatic nose with hints of a florist's shop—stems and blooms—with an underpinning of malt. A little gawky perhaps, which water accentuates. The palate, when neat, is clean and mixes those flowers and some stewed apple. There's a little green chili heat (even when diluted). A punchy little number. £36

—Vol. 24, #2

