Distilled in October 1997 and aged in a single refill hogshead, 360 bottles were released in 2014 as part of Langside's Distiller's Art range. The nose is mildly herbal, with green wood, heather, and developing soft toffee notes. Soft and gently spiced on the palate, with hazelnuts, and peaches in cream. The finish is relatively long, with milk chocolate, and tingling sweet spices. £62
