

Blood Oath Pact No. 1

49.3%

A blend of three bourbons, between 6 and 12 years old; two rye and one wheat. Nothing is revealed on the source, which is a fair part of the "blood oath," apparently. A restrained nose of corncakes, biscuits, a bit of cinnamon and maple: breakfasty.

Flavors of corn, spicy oak, and some grassy mint fight to be heard over roaring heat that flames on into the finish. Frankly too simple for the asking price. Sourced whiskey.

—Vol. 24, #3

