Gordon & MacPhail (distilled at Caol IIa) 12 year old, 1991 Vintage, 40%

Notes of smoked olives and an earthy peatiness wrapped inside layers of sweetness (honey, caramel and light toffee). The whisky is laced with seaweed and pepper for added zest, with a long smoky and peppery finish. It shows enough maturity, yet it is young enough to let the true Caol lla character shine through. I would like to have seen this whisky bottled at a higher strength and not chill-filtered.
