

Signatory 'Un-chillfiltered' (distilled at Clynelish)

13 year old, 1991 vintage, 46%

Very pale in color, suggesting it was aged in a used bourbon cask.

One nosing confirms it. A fairly light, fresh, and appetizing whisky, with notes of brine, mustard seed, and delicate honeyed vanilla.

Slightly oily in texture. Seaweed, with suggestions of ginger and bourbon on the finish. An aperitif whisky, or with sushi perhaps?
