52.5%

Blends 7 and 12 year old bourbons, and a 7 year wheater, in a beautifully packaged tribute to the old brand. Typical nose—cinnamon Red Hots, milled corn, oaky zest—in balanced harmony. Beautiful stuff on the tongue: warm but not hot, expansive corn sweetness that lightens the cinnamon's intensity, some clove, some oaky dryness. The warm finish only ends after a long embrace. Pricy for 7 year old bourbon, though; is this the future? Sourced whiskey.
