

Murray McDavid Mission IV (distilled at Clynelish)

1976 Vintage, 46%
Thick in texture and palatecoating. Ripe peaches and bananas, orange chocolate, English toffee, and a hint of damp oak on the nose. I can also detect brine, seaweed, peat smoke, and spice, but it's a little clumsy. Same story on the palate. Not a bad whisky, but I expect more from Clynelish.
