

Cragganmore Distillers

Edition

1992 vintage, 40%

Matured in port casks. The standard Cragganmore 12 year old is one of Scotland's best kept secrets-I enjoy its incredibly complex, dry, spicy character. The port contributes ripe fruit flavors (cherries in syrup, golden raisins, mandarin, glazed berries) which complements the dry spicy notes nicely and makes for a more balanced product. Still, for this, the whisky sacrifices some of its individuality and brilliancy with all that port. A fair trade-off, though.
