

Koval Single Barrel
Four Grain (Barrel 897)

47%

Oat, malt, rye, and wheat are the four organic grains (like you, I was instantly curious); nice amber color. Hot and sweet (with a hint of dill) on the nose, rafting in on a thick oak plank. Sweet grain, cut wood, and lingering heat make this good, but I'm looking for more complexity. There's no clear handle to this one, no "I'm bourbon," or "I'm malt," which is intriguing, but it's just...good, not inspiring. Odd complaint, but there you are.
