Strength (Batch 1)

57.2%

Remember those remarkable 20+ year old BenRiachs that appeared when the distillery reopened which we thought were gone forever?
Think again. This new and keenly priced arrival has sweet malt on the nose, followed by mango, orange blossom honey, and Portuguese custard tarts. It needs a little water to calm the alcohol and help to spread an already thick texture along the tongue. A sweetly spicy and creamy hit toward the end. Marked within its competitive set. £60
