Here's your private audience with the inestimable Mr. Beveridge.

After contemplating impeccably selected aged liquids from the big five Distillers Company Limited (DCL) grain distilleries, he's ready.

Three vatting representing cask character, distillery character, and

Highland single malt were combined in the final blend. Fresh layers of lemon and honey mingle with wood smoke. A seductive soft and creamy palate, saturated with fudge and delicate vanilla fuse together in a study of honeyed perfection. A fine indulgence. The best yet. (8,888 bottles)
