

Forty Creek
Confederation Oak Lot
1867-I
40%

Vague fruitiness, barrel notes, and corncocks on the nose turn to lush caramels, with a plush mouthfeel punctuated by hints of rye spices that become more assertive as notes of cloves meld into candy cane on a long, spicy, then pithy finish. There is more fruit in this special Canada 150 edition of Confederation Oak—sweet ripe apples and tart gooseberries. A masterful example of blending.

—Vol. 26, #3

