

GlenDronach Kingsman
Edition 1991
48.2%
A nose of bold sherry, worn leather, figs, malt, white pepper,
and ginger. Ultimately, a mildly savory note. Full-hodied on the savory note. Full-bodied on the palate, with overripe damsons and more ginger; spicy sherry and dried fruits develop. Medium to long in the finish, with persistent prickly spices, black coffee, and fragrant oak. (240 bottles for the U.S.)
