×	Whisky
×××	The Sexton 40% One of the most striking-looking new releases around, this bone- jangling, sepulchral, triple-distilled whiskey was once entombed in oloroso sherry butts. A nose of baked apple and sultana, rolled marzipan, sesame seeds, and roasted spices. Smooth tasting, with dark fleshy fruits, mixed peel chocolate, walnut; the taut spicy middle section dies back to baked	,
××	oranges. A dignified finish, with chocolate and nutmeg at the death. Ingest in peace.	×