Season 2 of Dair Ghaelach sees the action switch to six Irish oaks	5 felled in a County Kilkenny bluebell forest. The balance of	_ spice, toasted oak, and sweetnes on the nose from tree one is	S singularly good, though clementine and grapefruit peel also clamor for attention. The acidity of the citrus collides with crunchy pot still spices, and grapefruit evolves into the most delicious ripe mango flavor. Simpl heavenly.	,
