

Evan Williams Single
Barrel 1994 Vintage
(Barrel #1)
43.3% ABV

This is an elegant whiskey with lots of finesse. Its primary flavors are vanilla, mint, and candied fruit.

A touch of honey, light toffee, slight nuttiness, and rum notes round out the palate. Very clean, with a pleasingly dry finish. And nicely rounded too! Each year's vintage is slightly different. Some have been quite rich and full in texture. This one is more subtle and teasing-and it's one of the better ones.

—Vol. 13, #2

