

Highland Park 1981
vintage 25 year old (Cask #7380)

55%

The sherry is very dominant and cloying, which is unfortunate. And I'm not crazy about the quality of the sherry (or perhaps even the wood it was aged in). I have great respect for both Highland Park and Binny's, but this is somewhat disappointing for a Highland Park.

Tasted twice, with the same opinion. (Bottled for Binny's Beverage Depot)
