

Laphroaig Original Cask Strength 10 year old

57.3%

Pungent and medicinal in personality, with gobs of peat, tar, iodine, brine, and seaweed. These are all good things, in case you were wondering. A gentle vanilla sweetness tries to tame this savage beast, but it is no match. One of the most challenging-yet rewarding-whiskies in the entire world. What Cantillion Lambic is to beer, Laphroaig Original Cask Strength is to whisky.
