

Wolfhound

40%

Ripe orchard fruits, white flowers, saltines, green apple candy, and a hint of floor polish on the nose, along with pie crust that expresses itself as a sweet nuttiness on the palate. The flavors are simple—caramel, roasted hazelnuts, milk chocolate, and orange—and the finish short. If you're after an ordinary Irish blend, this should do the trick.
(Total Wine & More)

—Vol. 27, #4

