

Duncan Taylor 'Rarest of the Rare' (distilled at Linlithgow)

Cask #2214, 21 year old, 1982 vintage, 63.5%

Spicy and botanical on the nose, with notes of ginger, juniper, lemon grass, orange, and grapefruit rind. Similar follow-through on the palate, with added notes of vanilla, honeyed malt, and hay. Gentle, dried herb and spice finish. Certainly some interesting -- perhaps even peculiar -- flavors from this product of the demolished Lowland distillery.
