

Distillery Select
'Craiglodge' (distilled at Loch Lomond)

8 year old, 1998 vintage, 45%
Aged in a sherry cask, which adds sweet notes of toffee, Caribbean rum, waxed fruit, red licorice, and fruitcake to go along with the earthy smoke and lingering peat. A much sweeter, fruitier affair than the Croftengea also reviewed here, but behind all that sherry there's still a whisky that needs a little more maturing.
