

Balvenie 1971 vintage

49.9%

This veteran was matured in a European oak oloroso sherry butt.

The nose is fragrant, with malt, raisins, and tangy orange in time, settling to stewed fruits; a pleasing harmony of aromas. The palate is chewy and spicy, with a lovely bitter-sweet interplay between orchard fruits and dark oak, sprinkled with icing sugar.

Licorice, tannic oak, and bitter chocolate in the very long finish. A classic survivor. £21,000

—Vol. 28, #1

