

Duncan Taylor
Dimensions (distilled at Cambus) 1991 26 year
old

50.5%

Waxy lemon, light honey, lychee, physalis, fresh hay, and the slightly tart aroma of ripening pear. On the palate, the pear is honeyed and ripe, awash with a lovely citrus sweetness, before a brief spasm of bitterness as the peppercorn and clove spices move in. Perfect drinking at this strength, it ends with a tart, dried-fruit note on a bed of spice.

—Vol. 28, #1

