

Duncan Taylor 'Rarest of the Rare' (distilled at North Port)

Cask #774, 24 year old, 1981 vintage, 58.0%

Very pale in color. A creamy, mouthcoating whisky, with thick vanilla as the main thread. Quite dry, given its creaminess. I'm also picking up a lot of gin botanicals (especially juniper and orange peel). An interesting enough of a dram, but not something I would drink on a regular basis.
