

Daftmill 12 year old
(Summer 2006 Batch)

46%

Pure, clean malt shines throughout this whisky, the first Daftmill bottling for sale in the U.S.

Shortbread, candle wax, Golden Delicious apple, rose garden, apricot, ginger, and cinnamon on the nose. The palate is biscuity and sweet, with vanilla, shortbread cookies, candied pistachios, and crushed almonds; lemon and orange peel and lively rose oil perk things up once water is added.

Tobacco, cinnamon, and toasted almonds and hazelnuts fade like a whisper on the gentle, soft finish.
